The Fleetwood soon to Louisville,
A pile of freight will tote,
And people there are going to see
A boat as is a boat.

STRAWBERRIES are finer and larger this season than ever known before.

REMEMBER the ice cream and strawberry festival at Neptune Hall to-night.

THE repairing of the pier on the west side of Limestone bridge is in progress. It seems to be a very substantial piece of work.

JOHN FARLEY's lightning line baggage express wagon is out again and looking almost as bright as the accommodating driver does after a profitable days work.

Mrs. M. J. MORFORD has just returned from the city with the largest and hand-somest assortment of summer millinery ever brought to this city. She invites the ladies to call.

An enraged stallion made a savage attack on his keeper at Lexington, Ky., breaking his arm and leg, besides tearing great pieces of flesh from the poor fellow's breast and shoulder.

The Louisville Mail Line has bought the steamer Fleetwood from the Big Sandy Packet Company and will transfer her next week to the Louisville trade. The steamer Ohio will take the place of the Fleetwood until a new boat can be built.

The ice cream and strawberry festival for the benefit of the Sisters of the Visitation at Neptune Hall last night was well attended and passed off pleasantly. It will be repeated this evening. If you wish to aid a worthy cause you will be there.

The new steamer to be built in place of the Fleetwood is to be a veritable floating palace. The company would do a graceful thing by putting her in the Portsmouth trade in place of the Bonanza and assigning that boat to the Fleetwood's place.

Moonlight Fete.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church, at Washington, will give an ice cream and strawberry festival, at the residence of Mrs. Ann Henry, on Wednesday evening, June 4th, for the benefit of the church. It will be an occasion of great enjoyment and everybody is invited to be present.

PERSONALS.

Hon. W. Vaughn Prather is in the city. Miss Lizzie Burrows is visiting friends at Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Cox returned last night from the South.

Miss Mollie Clancey, of Cincinnati, is visiting friends in Maysville.

Mr. H. Duley, of the Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, is in the city.

Prof. T. F. Leary arrived in Maysville yesterday and left this morning for Georgetown, Ohio.

Hon. J. Q. Ward, of Cynthiana, a candidate for Judge of the Superior Court, is in the city, to-day.

Rev. Harry Henderson has been invited and will deliver the "Missionary Sermon" on the first Sunday in July, in the Southern Methodist Church, in this city, the occasion being "The Women's Missionary Convention" of the Kentucky Conference, of the Southern Methodist Church, which will meet in this city on Friday night, July 4th, at the Methodist Church.

This is the season of the year when our city friends like to get away on short excursions into the country, whose green fields, shady woodland, and clear streams are very inviting. Fishing is the favorite pastime and the ponds and brooks hereabouts are very numerous visited by the disciples of Isaac Walton, the great angler. One of the merriest fishing parties we have seen for some time left our city on Tuesday in a large furniture car, bound for the classic waters of the North Fork. They were driven by an old experienced driver, and they also took along a first class cook, and had an enjoyable fish-fry and lunch on the banks of the beautiful stream. The young ladies took well filled baskets and spread the dinner on the grass beneath the sheltering branches of a large shady tree. The ladies composing the party were Misses Chloe Power, Julia Lovel, Bettie Adamson, Lizzie Power and Ella Martin, and the gentlemen escorts were Messrs. Peter Parker, Charley Parry, Clarence Sallee, Lud Browning and James Threlkeld. They returned in the evening well pleased with their trip, each claiming to have caught the most fish, and all fully determined to go again before the season is over.

He First Turned Hot and Then Cold.

And now comes the drawing of the capital prize of $25,000 in the Louisiana State Lottery Company, on April 8th, drawing at New Orleans, of which Isidor Isaacs, of Modesta, has been awarded $5,000. Mr. Isaacs was in San Francisco yesterday, and said that there was a peculiar circumstance in relation to his securing the lucky ticket. "In the first place," said he, "I sent to San Francisco for a ticket in the Louisiana State Lottery. I received no answer to my letter, and so wrote again, requesting him to send another or refund my money. He sent the ticket, No. 58,298, for April 8th drawing—the lucky one—for it was only a little while before I received a dispatch that I had won a $5,000 prize. Well, I guess I felt about as any poor man does who suddenly comes into possession of money like that. I first turned hot and then cold." J. Boas cashed the check for the lucky man, who left the city for Modesta in high glee. Mr. Isaacs is a clothing-store keeper in Modesta, and has seen some pretty hard struggles.—San Francisco, Cal., Chronicle, April 20.

"The New Kentucky Cook Book."

The ladies of the Southern Methodist Church, of Maysville, Ky., now have in press at the publishing house, at Nashville, Tenn., "The New Kentucky Cook Book," which is edited by Dr. W. P. Harrison, the book editor at Nashville. The book will be a model of neatness, and will contain from two to three hundred pages. The book is what it claims to be—"A New Kentucky Cook Book,"—not confined to the blue grass, but for general circulation. The ladies have secured some twenty or more cards of advertisements from our business men, to be bound with said volume.

To Destroy Red Ants.

Grease a plate with lard, and set it where ants congregate; place a few bits of wood so the ants can climb on the plate easily; they will forsake any food for lard; when the plate is well covered with them, turn it over a hot fire of coals; they will drop into the fire, and you can then reset the plate for another catch. A few repetitions will clean them out.

For and About Women.

The organ of the bachelors is worried to find out why a woman will spend six weeks putting scallops on her dress that nobody but herself will ever get a glimpse of, and run about the neighborhood in an old dirty wrapper without any belt and every button burst off.—Fremont (Neb.) Herald.

Ladies' hats are adorned in Paris with springtime flowers and are covered with swarms of insects and butterflies of many colors. They nestle in the golden tulle or perch upon the flowers. The imitation is so perfect that one would say they were about to fly. As for the flowers preference is given to the lily of the valley and the white lilac.

As a worker, woman is proud to undertake too much, to overtax herself, to wear out her life too rapidly. There is a limit to human achievement, though there may be none to human aspiration. As a rule, woman works at a disadvantage. Her energies are divided; she has too many trades, too many "irons in the fire."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The London Truth says: It is a curious statistical fact that 173 marriages were advertised in the Times in the seven days preceding April 21st, and out of this number eighty brides were fatherless. This, we presume, means that bridegrooms are looking more and more to the main chance and only marry girls who have cash in hand. Prospects, nowadays, are not considered good enough. Mothers-in-law have long been at a discount, but it would seem that ready cash is a better asset than a father-in-law.

When a woman has a new pair of shoes sent home she performs altogether different from a man. She never shoves her toes into them and yanks and hauls until she is red in the face and all out of breath, and then goes stamping and kicking around, but pulls them on part way carefully, twitches them off again to take a last look and see if she has got the right one, pulls them on again, looks at them dreamily, says they are just right, then takes another look, stops suddenly to smooth out the wrinkle, twists around and surveys them sideways, exclaims, "Mercy, how loose they are," looks at them again square in front works her feet around so they won't hurt her quite so much, takes them off, looks at the heel, the toe, the bottom and then inside puts them on again, walks up and down the room once or twice, remarks to her better-half that she won't have them at any price, tilts down the mirror so she can see how they look, turns in every possible direction, and nearly dislocates her neck trying to see how they look from that way, back off, steps up again, takes thirty or forty farewell looks, says they make her feet look awful big and will never do in the world, puts them off and on three or four times more, and asks her husband what he thinks about it, and pays no attention to what he says, goes through it all again, and finally says she will take them. It is a very simple matter, indeed.—Chicago Tribune.

They Made Him Fit the Coffin.

There is great excitement at Oak Creek, Wis., over the action of the relatives of Horace Baldwin in carving off his legs when he died last week to make him fit the coffin. Baldwin was six feet seven inches tall, and when the day of the funeral came it was found the body was too long for the coffin, and his nephew severed the feet from the body with a common saw. While at work he thought Baldwin moved, and he fell in a dead faint, when another relative finished cutting off the limbs. At one time soon after the funeral it was thought the nephew would be mobbed by the neighbors, but the crowd was quieted by the Supervisors.

It Is a Positive Luxury

to brush the teeth with Sozodont, so fragrant and refreshing is it, and so pleasant is the taste it leaves in the month after the operation. Then how gratifying is the effect and how complacent feels the beholder who views in the glass a row of ivories rendered spotless, by this benign and delightful toilet article. Only a few drops on the brush, a rag or sponge is needed for an ablation and yet it is wonderfully effective.

A Remarkable Tribute.

Sidney Ourchundro, of Pittsburg' Pa., writes: I have used Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs many years with the most gratifying results. The relieving influence of Hall's Balsam is wonderful. The pain and rack of the body incidental to a tight cough, soon disappear by the use of a spoonful according to directions. My wife frequently sends for Halls Balsam instead of a physician, and health is speedily restored by its use.
